DETAILED ACTION

Drawings

1. The drawings are objected to because Figures 6 and 7 are illegible. Corrected drawing sheets in compliance with 37 CFR 1.121(d) are required in reply to the Office action to avoid abandonment of the application. Any amended replacement drawing sheet should include all of the figures appearing on the immediate prior version of the sheet, even if only one figure is being amended. The figure or figure number of an amended drawing should not be labeled as "amended." If a drawing figure is to be canceled, the appropriate figure must be removed from the replacement sheet, and where necessary, the remaining figures must be renumbered and appropriate changes made to the brief description of the several views of the drawings for consistency. Additional replacement sheets may be necessary to show the renumbering of the remaining figures. Each drawing sheet submitted after the filing date of an application must be labeled in the top margin as either "Replacement Sheet" or "New Sheet" pursuant to 37 CFR 1.121(d). If the changes are not accepted by the examiner, the applicant will be notified and informed of any required corrective action in the next Office action. The objection to the drawings will not be held in abeyance.

Specification

2. Applicant is reminded of the proper language and format for an abstract of the disclosure.

The abstract should be in narrative form and generally limited to a single paragraph on a separate sheet within the range of 50 to 150 words. It is important that the abstract not exceed 150 words in length since the space provided for the abstract on the computer tape used by the printer is limited. The form and legal phraseology often used in patent claims, such as "means" and "said," should be avoided. The abstract should describe the disclosure sufficiently to assist readers in deciding whether there is a need for consulting the full patent text for details.

The language should be clear and concise and should not repeat information given in the title. It should avoid using phrases which can be implied, such as, "The disclosure concerns," "The disclosure defined by this invention," "The disclosure describes," etc.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

3. The following is a quotation of the second paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall conclude with one or more claims particularly pointing out and distinctly claiming the subject matter which the applicant regards as his invention.

4. Claims 22-25 and 27-29 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention.

In regards to claim 22, it is unclear what Applicant is attempting to claim with the multiple references to claim 18. Are there multiple claim 18 apparatus present? How is this possible? If not, then the claim should be rewritten to reflect the text which is claimed, instead of the repeated reference to claim 18.

In regards to claim 23, it is unclear what Applicant is attempting to claim since he references back to claims 16 and 18, but not in the alternative. This is improper, since the ordinarily skilled artisan would have no idea how to follow the claim as written.

In regards to claim 24, it is unclear what Applicant is attempting to claim since it refers back to claim 22, yet also depends from claim 18, from which claim 22 depends.

In regards to claim 25, if Examiner cannot understand claim 24, he cannot understand claim 25, which depends from 24.

In regards to claim 27, it is unclear what Applicant is attempting to claim. Specifically how is claim 27 different from claim 26? Why is it written like it is? Why isn't it "the method of processing fiber samples of claim 16, further comprising the steps of...”? As it is, Examiner cannot determine if this is a new method, or the old method with an additional step.

In regards to claims 28 and 29, if Examiner cannot understand claim 27, he cannot understand claims 28 and 29, which depend from 27.

Allowable Subject Matter

5. Claims 1-21 and 26 are allowed.

Reasons for Indicating Allowable Subject Matter

6. The following is a statement of reasons for the indication of allowable subject matter:

The claims as listed above are found to be allowable because the prior art of record neither teaches nor reasonably suggests the recitations found therein, including method and apparatus for creating end aligned fibers for testing.

Conclusion

7. The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure. Ramachandran et al (6085584) and Ghorashi et al (5178007) all teach what is well known in the art.

8. Any inquiry concerning this communication or earlier communications from the examiner should be directed to Shaun R. Hurley whose telephone number is (571) 272-4986. The examiner can normally be reached on Mon - Fri, 8:00 am - 4:00 pm.
